Important Updates for the 2027 Tax Season

Dear Clients,
We are pleased to share some updates for the upcoming tax season at Parks & Company.
After many years of dedicated service, Bob Parks will begin transitioning into retirement in 2027. During tax season, Bob will maintain a limited schedule on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. If you would like to schedule an appointment with Bob, we encourage you to contact our office as early as possible. If his schedule is full, our experienced team of accountants remains available to assist you.

Partnership and S Corporation Returns

Partnership and S Corporation tax returns for 2026 are due March 15, 2027.
If you are unable to file by the deadline, please contact our office well in advance to request an extension.
Extensions are not filed automatically and must be specifically requested by the taxpayer.
Approved extensions provide an additional six months, extending the filing deadline to September 15, 2027. To ensure timely completion of extended returns, we must receive all required information by September 1, 2027.
Information received after that date may result in additional rush processing fees, and we cannot guarantee timely filing.

Individual Tax Returns

The deadline to file individual tax returns, or request an extension, is April 15, 2027.
If you anticipate needing an extension, please contact our office no later than early April. Extensions must be requested and are not filed automatically. An approved extension extends the filing deadline to October 15, 2027.
To allow sufficient time for preparation, all remaining tax information must be submitted by September 30, 2027.
Information received after that date may be subject to additional rush processing fees.

Drop-Off and Mail-In Returns

Clients who do not require an appointment and plan to mail or drop off their tax information should submit all materials by March 31, 2027.
While we will make every effort to complete returns received by that date before the April 15 filing deadline, returns received after March 31 will likely require an extension and will be completed as scheduling permits.

Schedule an Appointment

To schedule an appointment, please call our office at (717) 838-2387.
We appreciate the opportunity to serve you and look forward to working with you during the upcoming tax season.
